Aged 88, Jean passed away peacefully on June 14, 2020 at Poole Hospital.

Jean was a kind, sweet and generous woman who loved her family dearly.

Jean was born and raised in North London. Upon her retirement, Jean moved to Swanage, where she spent many happy years volunteering at Swanage Railway during which she fostered cherished memories and lasting friendships.

Jean loved her garden and spent many hours nurturing beautiful blooms.

She was a creative woman; dressmaking, needlepoint, knitting and photography were some of her creative pursuits.

Jean is survived by her loving Daughter Karen. Beloved Nanny to her Grandchildren Amber, Dion, Jaide, and Darius. As well to her Great-Grandchildren Ava Jean and Levi. Loving Auntie to Tony (Fiona), Jane (Graham), and Tim (Sharon). Forever in our hearts until we meet again.
