Poem

Stop all the Clocks

Stop all the clocks, cut off the telephone,
Prevent the dog from barking with a juicy bone,
Silence the pianos and with muffled drum
Bring out the coffin, let the mourners come.

Let aeroplanes circle moaning overhead,
Scribbling on the sky the message "she is dead"
Put crepe bows round the white necks of the Public doves
Let the traffic policemen wear black cotton gloves.

She was Our North, our South, our east and West,
Our working week and our Sunday rest
Our noon, our midnight, our talk, our song;
We thought that she would last forever: we were wrong.

The stars are not wanted now; put out every one,
Pack away the moon and dismantle the sun,
Pour away the ocean and sweep up the wood;
For nothing now can ever come to any good.

W H Auden

Prayers

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.
