Welcome

Readings

Isaiah 54:10

“ For the mountains may depart and the hills be removed, but my steadfast love shall not depart from you, and my covenant of peace shall not be removed.”

Says the Lord, who has compassion on you.

Romans 14: 7-9,1

The life and death of each of us has its influence on others; if we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord, so that alive or dead we belong to the Lord. This explains why Christ both died and came to life, it was so that he might be lord both of the dead and of the living. As scripture says: By my life - it is the Lord who speaks - every knee shall bend before me, and every tongue shall praise
God.

Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Prayers

Bidding Prayers

We pray for Tricia... May God receive her kindly, with generosity and forgiveness, and the rewards of her faith. May she continue to inspire us, to intercede for us, and be there at the end to welcome us, in our turn, into eternal life.

Lord hear us

Lord graciously hear us

For those who live a good life, the hour of death is transformed into an hour of glory, because God gives them the crown of eternal life. Let us pray to God in our hour of loss

Lord hear us.

Lord graciously hear us

We pray for those who care for the sick and housebound. We give thanks for the skills and commitment of doctors, nurses and carers. May they continue to reflect the compassion and healing of God who is made known to us in Christ.
Lord hear us.

Lord graciously hear us.

We give thanks for the love which Tricia showed during her life. May she know the perfection and fulfilment of that love in heaven.
Lord hear us.

Lord graciously hear us.

Poem

The Broken Chain

We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.

You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.
