Welcome and Prayers

Hymn

The Lord's my Shepherd

1. The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want;
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green; he leadeth me
The quiet waters by.
2. My soul he doth restore again,
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
E'en for his own name's sake.
3. Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale,
Yet will I fear no ill:
For thou art with me, and thy rod
And staff me comfort still.
4. My table thou hast furnished
In presence of my foes;
My head thou dost with oil anoint
And my cup overflows.
5. Goodness and mercy all my life
Shall surely follow me;
And in God's house for evermore
My dwelling-place shall be.

Bible Reading

John 14:1-6

Jesus said to his disciples: 'Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house there are many dwelling places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also. And you know the way to the place where I am going'. Thomas said to him. 'Lord we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?' Jesus said to him, 'I am the way, and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me' ...

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not be afraid.'

Prayers

Ending with the Lord's Prayer:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven
Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory
Forever and ever.
Amen.

Hymn

He Who Would Valiant Be (To be a Pilgrim)

1. He who would valiant be 'gainst all disaster
Let him in constancy follow the Master
There's no discouragement shall make him once relent
His first avowed intent to be a pilgrim

2. Who so beset him round with dismal stories
Do but themselves confound - his strength the more is No foes shall stay his might; though he with giants fight
He will make good his right to be a pilgrim

3. Since, Lord, Thou dost defend us with Thy Spirit
We know we at the end, shall life inherit
Then fancies flee away! I'll fear not what men say I'll labour night and day to be a pilgrim.

Prayer of Commendation and Entrusting

Let us commend Olive to the mercy of God, our maker and redeemer..

God our creator and redeemer,
By your power Christ conquered death and entered into glory.
Confident of his victory
and claiming his promises,
we entrust Olive to your mercy,
in the name of Jesus our Lord,
who died and is alive and reigns with you, now and forever.

Amen.

Committal

We have entrusted our sister Olive to God's mercy
And we now commit her body to be cremated
Earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust
In sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life
Through our Lord Jesus Christ who will transform our frail bodies that they may be conformed to his glorious body,
who died, was buried and rose again for us
To him be glory forever.

Amen.

God be in my head, and in my understanding
God be in my eyes, and in my looking
God be in mouth, and in my speaking
God be in my heart, and in my thinking
God be at my end, and at my departing.

Amen.

May God give you
his comfort and his peace,
his light and his joy
in this world and the next.
And the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit be among you and remain with you always.

Amen.
