Poem

Feel No Guilt In Laughter (Anon)

Feel no guilt in laughter, she'd know how much you'd care.
Feel no sorrow in a smile that she is not here to share.
You cannot grieve forever, she would not want you to.
She hoped that you could carry on the way you always do.
So, talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared
The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.
Let memories surround you, a word someone may say
Will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, a day.
That brings her back as clearly as though she were still here,
And fills you with the feeling that she is always near.
And if you keep those moments, you will never be apart.
And she will live forever, locked safely within your heart.

You Raise Me Up

Westlife

Poem

“Mum”, Composed by Glenda

You didn't talk a lot Mum
“I love you” was kinda rare
But when we needed mothering
You were always there

We could always count on you
To do what's good and right
We'd see your wisdom and the truth
So we'd rarely have to fight

You were strong enough, yet gentle enough
To be the perfect mother
If we could search the whole wide world
We wouldn't pick another

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.
