Poem

Mum, you left too soon,
I haven't loved you enough, our relationship was never ideal,
And our journey was very tough,
My love for you hasn't died.
So, I will not entomb my heart,
I'll let it manifest in things, let it be a new start.
Losing my Mum, I lose myself today in darkness so deep I try to find light just a ray just enough to hold on to life.
As you leave today, let me cry,
Let me say my Mum was my hero,
Leading me to right, forgiving and loving, a star so bright,
So, I loose today, my support my light, my dear Mum make my life so bright.
Don't think of her as gone away, her journey just begun life holds so many facets, this earth is only one.
Just think of her as resting forever with her Mum, from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days or years.
Think how she must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness, can really pass away.
And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched but nothing loved is ever lost and she was loved so much.

Eulogy

Reflection Music – Seasons in the Sun, Terry Jacks

Prayers & The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Commendation and The Blessing
