Dust If You Must

by Rose Milligan

Dust if you must, but wouldn't it be better
To paint a picture, or write a letter,
To bake a cake, or plant a seed;
Ponder the difference between want and need?

Dust if you must, but there's not much time
With boats to sail, and ladders to climb,
Music to hear while sewing at speed;
Friends to cherish, and a life to lead.

Dust if you must, but the world's out there
With the sun in your eyes, and the wind in your hair;
The splash of the sea, a shower of rain
This day will not come around again

So dust if you must, but bear in mind
Old age will come and it is not kind...
And when you go (and go you must)
You, yourself will make more dust.

Closing Words

The Lord's Prayer

Our father who art in heaven
Hallowed be thy name
Thy Kingdom come,
Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom
The power and the glory forever and ever
Amen
