All things bright and beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful,
The Lord God made them all.

Each little flower that opens,
Each little bird that sings,
He made their glowing colours,
He made their tiny wings.

The purple-headed mountain,
The river running by,
The sunset and the morning,
That brightens up the sky;

The cold wind in the winter,
The pleasant summer sun,
The ripe fruits in the garden,
He made them every one;

He gave us eyes to see them,
And lips that we might tell
How great is God Almighty,
Who has made all things well.

When I go

When I go, don't learn to live without me.
Just learn to live with my love in a different way
And if you need to see me, close your eyes
Or look in your shadow when the sun shines

I'm there

Sit with me in the quiet and you will know, that I did not leave, there is no leaving
When a soul is blended with another

When I go don't learn to live without me,
Just learn to look for me in the moment

I will be there

The yellow ladies, a trio of angels with whom the whole experience of spending Dad's last weeks at home was made such a memorable time. Memorable because Dad looked forward to seeing them each visit, sharing stories of old, family history, a laugh, a joke and of course a cuddle. Each visit made, was based not on length of time but on Dad's needs, how he was feeling, coping or responding to medication.

The yellow ladies work closely with the district nurses, another great team looking after Dad. Thank you to all the District Nursing team including the out of hours teams, a big thanks to Jill from the team for going above and beyond late one evening making sure Dad was settled. The yellow ladies supported and guided us too, no problem was too big, no question too silly. If you could choose how to spend your last days, as Dad did, we hope that there will be more people that are fortunate enough to benefit from the care given by these lovely ladies. So thank you Carol, Karen and Sharon, we wouldn't have managed without you and we'll be forever grateful.
