Fees you must pay
For an Attended or Unattended burial funeral, the burial fee* in this local area, the typical cost of the burial fee for local residents is:	£535
For a new grave, you will also need to pay for the plot; for an existing grave with a memorial in place, you may need to pay a removal/replacement fee. In addition, the cemetery may charge a number of other fees.
For an Attended cremation funeral, the cremation fee  in this area, the typical cost of a cremation for local residents is:	£831 - £1030
Please discuss any specific religious, belief-based and/or cultural requirements that you have with the Funeral director.
ADDITIONAL FUNERAL DIRECTOR PRODUCTS AND SERVICES
This funeral director may be able to supply a range of optional, additional products and services, or to arrange (on your behalf) for a third party to supply them. Examples include:
Additional mileage (price per mile)	£2.15
Additional transfers of the deceased's body (e.g. to their home, to a place of worship etc.) (price per transfer)	£460
Collection and delivery of ashes	£50
Embalming of the deceased person	£150
Funeral officiant (e.g. celebrant, minister of religion etc)	Prices on request
Services supplied outside of normal office hours	Prices on request
The funeral director can give you a full list of what they can supply. They are likely to charge for these additional products and services, so you may choose to take care of some arrangements without their involvement, or you can use a different supplier.

* This fee (which is sometimes called the interment fee) is the charge made for digging and closing a new grave, or for reopening and closing an existing grave.

 In England, Wales and Northern Ireland, you will usually need to pay doctors' fees as well. This is the charge for two doctors to sign the Medical Certificates for Cremation.
